

SPONSORSHIP OPPORTUNITY

Promote your business and services at the upcoming Business Mission:
Lithuania United Kingdom

We are delighted to invite you to participate in a one-of-a-kind business mission on October 24, 2025, at the London Marriott Hotel in Canary Wharf. This event will unite Lithuanian enterprises, government officials, regional council members, and international partners from the UK.

WHO WILL BE PRESENT

This elite gathering is expected to attract over 200 prominent figures, including entrepreneurs, business leaders, investors, and executives from Lithuania and the United Kingdom.

- Regional mayors and economic development officers from Lithuania.
- Exporters and industry associations from Lithuania and the UK.
- Representatives from international trade organisations and media outlets.
- Professionals from the diaspora eager to expand their networks and create new partnerships.

WHY BECOME A SPONSOR?

This premier international business forum, conducted in English, aims to stimulate discussions among Lithuanian government officials, regional leaders, business executives, UK investors, diaspora professionals, and international organisations.

As a sponsor, you will have the exceptional opportunity to present your products and services to audiences from diverse sectors, including finance, legal, construction, technology, artificial intelligence, automotive, and government. With 20 years of experience and the extensive networking capabilities of LCCUK and our partners, we guarantee that your brand will reach the right audience during the event and be promoted through our social media channels, media coverage and business communities.
